

Writings From The Rev - April 2010

It's been a number of years since Easter has come close, if not on April 1st. In fact, it won't happen again until 2018. This year the first of April is on Maundy Thursday, the night we remember Jesus meeting with his disciples in the Upper Room for a farewell meal. But since April Fool's Day is within Holy Week this year, I felt it appropriate to share with you this poem I wrote some years ago:

"The Easter Fool"

Hear my words, if you may... Jesus Christ has risen today!

Why, what a foolish thing to say.

We know he died upon the cross, he suffered death and all was loss.

What a Foolish thing to say, that Jesus Christ has risen today.

I speak these words that you might hear, what may sound foolish to your ear,

That Christ has risen from the grave, salvation's price has now been paid.

What a foolish thing to say, that Christ has risen from the grave.

No one can pay the price of sin, the hands of fate our lives are in.

You must not know the world as we, your foolish claim we can not see.

I come to share a news that's true, a gift of love from God to you.

For what seems foolish is really wise, when viewed through God and not your eyes.

So, foolishness I come to share, into this world filled with despair.

That you may too be fooled this day, to come by faith and know the way,

To speak with foolish hearts and say that Christ the Lord has risen today!

For the sake of Christ, what a foolish thing to say.

Most of the time when we think or talk about fools or foolishness, it holds a negative image. Nobody wants to be known as a Fool. In fact, Jesus tells us that one of the worst things you can do is call someone a fool. And yet, when the Apostle Paul writes his first letter to the Corinthians he gives us a whole new viewpoint of what it means to be foolish. In chapter 1:18, he writes, "For the message about the Cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God." In verse 27, he says, "God chose what is foolish in the world to shame the wise." In chapter 3:18 & 19, Paul says, "Do not deceive yourselves. If you think that you are wise in this age, you should become fools so that you may become wise. For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God." And in chapter 4:10, he boldly states, "We are fools for the sake of Christ."

To a great many people in this world the Easter Story seems foolish. And even those who claim to believe, sometimes find it hard to share their faith, because they are afraid of being labeled a fool. As Easter People, we are called by Christ to proclaim the GOOD NEWS. Love your enemies; pray for those who hurt you; give more than you are required to give; hope when there is no hope. What the rest of the world may see as foolish, we know to be the power of God. To the worldly, faith in the Good News of our risen Christ may seem foolish, but to those foolish enough to believe, it is the gift of God's Love and Grace.

May you be filled with the Foolish Joy of this Easter Season!

Children's DedicationFrom time to time in the life of the Church we rejoice when parents bring their children (infants—toddlers) forward during the worship service to be blessed by God and dedicated into our church family. The dedication is a time when the child's family and the church family promise to support the child in developing a Christian faith. If you are interested in having your child dedicated into the life of the church, please contact Rev. Ralph or call the church office, 748-2230. May 9, Mother's Day, would be a very good time to consider doing this. It can be done any Sunday that is best for you.

Game Night Update

On February 28, about 18 people (of all ages) from the North Eaton Christian Church gathered for a fun night of playing games, socializing, and eating snacks. Some of the games we enjoyed were Scrabble, Farkle, Kemps, Spoons, Euchre, LRC, and Uno Attack. Everyone seemed to have a great time and some of us learned some new games. There may be some photos in the Fellowship Hall to check out. THANKS to those who attended and brought games and snacks to share. We hope to see even more people joining us next for the next Game Night.

Celebration of "Discipline" Group Study

Consistent with NECC's Strategic Plan, a new small group study was started at the beginning of the Lenten Season. We met on Wednesday evenings for one hour to study Richard J. Foster's "Celebration of Discipline." Lead by Maureen Cromling, we learned how the classic Christian Disciplines can open hearts to the transforming grace of God. After completing the first set of lessons that included The Introduction and The Inward Disciplines, we have decided to complete the series that includes four sessions on The Outward Disciplines and four on The Corporate Disciplines. We should complete this study by mid-June.

If you were not able to attend this study and it sounds like something you would like to attend, please contact Maureen Cromling, 748-3786. If there is enough interest, we will start another class. This study covers Christian disciplines that are essential in advancing each of us in our spiritual journey. As stated by Richard J. Foster, "Because the discipline of study is so important for transformation, it should be a part of normal church life for all Christians."

I thank everyone who committed to join me in this group study. I have been blessed by each of you.

Yours in Christ, Maureen

...those who took home eggs and filled them on their own.
...all who donated prizes and candy.
...Eve Circle for stuffing information bags.

We had over 150 dozen plastic eggs stuffed and ready to be gathered by excited children at the Easter Egg Hunt on Palm Sunday, March 28.

Egypt: Joseph's Journey from Prison to Palace

VBS participations will imagine living in a dusty, bustling, noisy city along the Nile in ancient Egypt...you'd gossip about the Pharaoh's palace...work with people who followed countless gods...and perhaps hear about a "dreamer" that Pharaoh put in charge... The Fellowship Hall will be transformed into a Marketplace; children and adults will visit Joseph first in prison then at the palace where he serves the Pharaoh. If you have any decorations that might fit the Egyptian theme, please let us know. Brad and Heather Stevanus have agreed to take on a leadership roll with much help and support from Polly Tallos and Melissa Folk. At this time, if you have any questions, please see Polly Tallos or Melissa Folk.
